

Glenavon House, Broadstairs

Offers In The Region Of £220,000

This property has NO CHAIN!

If you are looking for the ideal two bedroom apartment in Broadstairs – then look no further! This fabulous, purpose-built residence is on the first floor of Glenavon House which is located in a highly sought after, desirable area. The property is light & bright throughout with a through lounge/diner which opens on to a balcony with an idyllic outlook. This is perfect for relaxing during the long summer evenings with views of the historic Stone House and the chapel next door. The modern kitchen is a good size and well fitted, with plenty of work surfaces. Another benefit is the three piece, double shower room as well as a separate cloakroom.

Glenavon house is surrounded by manicured lawn with plenty of on street parking in the generous cul-de-sac. There is also a garage en bloc with this apartment. Francis Road is within easy walking distance of Stone Bay, just half a mile away. A beautiful, sandy beach recognised with the Blue Flag Award in 2023. A quick five minute drive in either direction takes you to the North Foreland Golf Club or Broadstairs town centre with its eclectic mix of independent shops, restaurants & bars. Broadstairs train station offers fast services to London in just 80 minutes.
