Brook Cottage | Freehold | Council Tax Band F

Brook Cottage sits proudly within the Alverstoke conservation area, a small hamlet which forms part of the Borough of Gosport and is approximately half a mile east of Stokes Bay shoreline, it is also very close to Alverstoke Creek and the historic Grade II Listed St. Mary's Church. The village centre has a variety of small shops, The Village Home public house, a convenience store and post office it also retains the historic charm with narrow streets, Georgian and Victorian homes. In the early 19th Century, seaside towns became very fashionable with the building of fine townhouses, Georgian Crescent's and individual homes such as Brook Cottage. Queen Victoria is known to have stayed in the area when travelling to and from Osborn House on the Isle of Wight. Brook Cottage is understood to have been built circa 1814 with its stucco frontage and parapet hiding a pitched London roof over, it is adjacent to the heart of the village yet within a few minutes' walk of the waterfront, it is also close to Alverstoke Infant School with sports facilities nearby. In this rather imposing Grade II Listed property you are buying more than just a family home in an enviable position, you are also preserving a little slice of history for the next generation, set back behind soldier railings and a deep forecourt this family home offer versatile accommodation, extending over 2088 sq ft of living space arranged over two floors and comprises: hallway, sitting room, living room, open plan family/dining room, kitchen, cloakroom and morning room on the ground floor with four bedrooms and a large family bathroom on the first floor.
