Country & Equestrian

CLAYDENE OAST

CLAYDENE OAST, Hartfield Road, Cowden, Edenbridge, Kent TN8 7HF

Set in 30 acres (*TBV) of mainly pasture a unique detached Oast and Barn conversion offering substantial accommodation (approx. 3716sqft.), approached via a long private driveway and occupying a desirable countryside location with open views situated on the fringes of the popular rural hamlet of Cowden and not on the main road.

The original Oast House and former Detached Barn are now connected via a garden room, which combines the two buildings perfectly without disrupting the flow of the interior which combines original features such as exposed wall and ceiling timbers with contemporary and modern aspects culminating in the family home of today.

The extensive acreage at the property offers opportunities for a variety of farming uses and/or creating a large equestrian set up with the addition of further stabling, a riding arena and ancillary facilities (Subject to permissions). Existing out buildings and leisure facilities include stabling, hay barn, workshop, garages and storage area as well as an indoor swimming pool.

The surrounding countryside is also well known for having good off road riding options with easy horsebox access to show centres at Felbridge, Hickstead and Ardingly South of England showground.

SITUATION & AREA AWARENESS

Cowden is a sought-after village just north of Edenbridge and within easy reach of Tunbridge Wells, East Grinstead and the Ashdown Forest. This picturesque village has a beautiful 14th century church, lovely pub, playing field with cricket pavilion, tennis club and is surrounded by breath-taking countryside. Holtye and Sweetwoods Park golf clubs are nearby. Cowden Train Station offers a good service into central London and is walking distance from the property.

Edenbridge is a traditional small market town set in the Eden Valley countryside on the Kent/Surrey borders and has a great range of shops, restaurants and supermarkets, as well as a host of traditional town and country pubs and a market is also held every Thursday in the town in Market Yard. Edenbridge benefits from two mainline rail stations with good links to central London.

The M25 is a short drive accessed at junction 6 and Gatwick airport can be reached via the M23 in 25 minutes. Brighton is less than an hour away ideal for lovers of beach life and water sports with an eclectic range of shops for anyone looking to enjoy a more diverse cultural experience.

There is an excellent selection of primary schools in Edenbridge and many secondary education options including Grammar, state and private, all just a short bus or train journey from the Town. Coxlands is in the catchment for a number of fantastic primary schools including Chiddingstone Primary School, OFSTED rated outstanding.

ACCOMMODATION-refer to the floor plans

GROUND FLOOR - accommodation offers an ideal space for everyday family life, as well as entertaining. Additional connecting indoor swimming pool with sliding doors to the outside space, gardens with far reaching countryside views.

The kitchen/breakfast room and living area are open plan to one another offering a generous feeling of space. The kitchen has been fitted with a range of wall and base units and worktops over and boasts a large island for eating as well as storage, an electric AGA adds to the country house feel. Further separate utility room, pantry and Cloakroom/WC.

Further sitting area has a large feature fireplace with wood burning stove and access out to the gardens from two separate points. The original Oast House and former barn are now connected via a garden room, which not only combines the two buildings perfectly but also offers an additional reception space overlooking the walled front garden with areas of mature fruit trees.

A formal dining room, which alternatively could be used as the main sitting/drawing room, offers a great space for entertaining with an open archway leading through to a second roundel sitting room with wood burner and doors leading out to the rear garden.

FIRST FLOOR - In the barn area a former hayloft has been converted to a bedroom with vaulted beamed ceiling and en-suite shower room and enjoying double aspect and far reaching views over open fields.

In the Oast part there are three further bedrooms and a separate cloakroom. The principal suite is set within the roundel with dressing room and en-suite bathroom with freestanding double slipper bath, separate shower cubicle, wash hand basin and WC. A second bedroom also benefits from an en-suite shower room.

EQUESTRIAN FACILITIES

STABLES - please refer to the plans enclosed for layout and dimensions.

OUTBUILDING 5 - Stable / Hay barn. Timber constructed.

OUTBUILDING 7 - Open fronted stable on skids. Timber constructed.

OUTBUILDING 8 - Tack room /store. Timber constructed.

The stables are accessed from the drive with a secure area of hard standing which leads to the all weather turnout and small lunging arena.

GARDENS

The house is approached by a long private driveway with ample off road. The gardens surround the house, with a variety of separate areas to enjoy. The main garden to the rear is laid to lawn with fenced borders and a large patio area running the length of the house for entertaining. To the front, a walled garden and courtyard sits between the original Oast House and converted barn, with a large area of patio and a further area of lawn with mature fruit trees. Across from the drive is a large fenced pond, which is surrounded by mature woodland trees.

LAND & GROUNDSD

House and gardens with stables 2.3 acres (*TBV). Further pasture land purchased at a later stage of ownership approx. 27 acres (*TBV).

The acreage and or land shown / stated on any map and or screen print for the property is *TBV – (To Be Verified), which means that the land has not been formally measured and or verified by Equus and or its sellers/clients. A Title Plan from Land Registry will have been acquired, where available, showing the boundary and acreage. Otherwise, an online measuring tool will have been used to 'check' the acreage against the Land Registry Title where possible. Interested applicants / buyers are advised that if they have any doubts as to the plot size and wish to have verification of the titles and exact area of the entire plot/s, they will be required to make their own arrangements, at their own cost, by appointing the services of a Solicitor acting on their behalf and an accredited / qualified company who can measure the area for a compliant Land Registry Title Plan.
