Description

24 Bloomfield Way is a semi-detached house of brick and block construction with brick elevations under a slate tiled roof. It was constructed in 2005/2006 and benefits from UPVC windows throughout and an oil fired central heating system. The house is presented to a high standard and is ready to move into.

A front door leads to a hallway off which is the sitting room and also the cloakroom with WC and hand wash basin. The sitting room has a south-east facing window to the front of the property and stairs that lead into the first floor landing, as well as understairs storage cupboards. Double doors from the sitting room open to the kitchen/dining room that has north-west facing French doors and a window overlooking the rear patio and garden. The kitchen is fitted with high and low level wall units with an integrated electric oven, four ring hob and extractor fan. In addition, is a one and a half bowl stainless steel sink and recess and plumbing for a washing machine, dishwasher and a fridge freezer.

From the first floor landing there is access to the two double bedrooms, bathroom and also a shelved storage cupboard. The principal bedroom is a particularly good size and has a window to the front of the property and a built in wardrobe. Bedroom two is also a double bedroom and has a window to the rear overlooking the garden. To the front of the property is a garden laid to grass as well as a brick paved driveway/parking area for two vehicles. This leads to the single garage that measures 17'6 x 8'6. It has an up and over door to the front and personnel door to the rear garden. It is also home to the oil fired combi boiler.

The rear garden can be accessed through the house itself or via the garage. Immediately abutting the kitchen/dining room is a sandstone patio area, bordered by raised beds. Steps lead up to a lawn. The rear garden measures approximately 50' x 25' and is fully enclosed by hedging and fencing.
