Description

Oakwood Farm is a country house of brick and block construction with part rendered and part weatherboarded elevations under a tiled roof. The property provides extensive and flexible accommodation over two floors, which take advantage of rural views.

The main door to the front of the house provides access to a reception hall. Off this is a cloakroom with WC, a door to the rear of the property, to the kitchen, and also to an extensive reception room which is currently used as a playroom/gym. Off this is a ground floor large double bedroom that has French door opening to the rear garden and a door into a bathroom with bath, shower, WC and hand wash basin. The house has a most impressive open plan and spacious kitchen/dining room which enjoys views from windows and French doors over the gardens. There is a kitchen island with five ring gas hob. The room has recessed spotlighting and tiled flooring in a timber style. Off this is a particularly useful and large larder and pantry. Doors lead to a front hallway, the sitting room and also to the utility room. This has high and low level wall units, space and plumbing for a washing machine and off this, is a second ground floor cloakroom with WC. The front hallway has stairs to the first floor landing, a door to a snug or study and a further door to the particularly spacious sitting room. This is triple aspect with windows and French doors overlooking the gardens. There is a fireplace with woodburning stove and exposed floorboards.

There is a large first floor landing with airing cupboards and storage cupboards. Off the landing are the five first floor bedrooms and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom is dual aspect with windows to the front and rear. There are fitted wardrobes and drawers as well as eaves storage cupboards.
