Description

Cherry Tree Cottage is a most impressive period dwelling which has been substantially extended. It has the advantage of not being Listed but still contains attractive features. The original part of the cottage is of timber frame construction with rendered elevations, with it all being under a tiled roof.

A door leads into an entrance hall where stairs rise to the first floor landing. There is a doorway to the cloakroom with WC and handwash basin, an opening to the sitting room/dining room and a further opening to the kitchen. This particularly spacious room has west facing windows to the rear of the property. There are low-level wall units with an integrated dishwasher and butler sink with taps above. There is space and plumbing for an American style fridge freezer and Range cooker. A large opening leads to a breakfast room or living room. This has a stable style door to the rear patio, wall to wall windows and skylights. Also off the kitchen is a good size utility room. This has high and low-level wall units, space and plumbing for a washing machine and fridge. There is also a sink, window and door to the exterior.

The dual aspect sitting room has a brick fire place at one end with a woodburning stove. At the other end are bespoke fitted cupboards and bookshelves. As well as exposed timbers, there are floorboards, feature radiators and a door to the front of the property.

From the first floor landing there is access to the three bedrooms as well as a useful eaves storage room. The principal bedroom has wall to wall fitted wardrobes, French doors opening to a balcony and a door to an en-suite bathroom. This is predominantly tiled and comprises a bath, handwash basin, WC and airing cupboard with modern hot water cylinder and slatted shelving. The two further bedrooms are both dual aspect doubles and have exposed timbers. A family shower room comprises a WC, handwash basin, shower and window.

The property has an oil-fired central heating system and timber frame double glazed windows throughout.

The Outside

The property is approached from the road over a drive, shared with the neighbouring cottage. This leads to the garage which has remote controlled roller shutter doors to the front. One bay measures 18'10 x 9', the other, 8'6 x 8'11. To the rear of the garage is an insulated office measuring 9'1 x 9'7. Adjoining this is a useful store shed. Above the garage and accessed via steps to the side, is a studio. This measures 18'6 x 18'6 and has Velux windows to the front and rear. This is currently being used as overflow bedroom accommodation.

There is an area of garden to the front of the house which contains cherry trees. The main gardens lie to the rear which faces north-west. Immediately abutting the breakfast room is a patio that leads to a shingled patio and beyond the garage to the garden that is laid to grass. This is enclosed by hedging and fencing and includes fruit tree beds and vegetable beds. In all, the grounds extend to approximately 0.25 acres.
