An excellent opportunity has arisen to purchase this charming three-bedroom semi-detached cottage dating back to 1700'S and retaining many original features with exposed stone walls and beamed ceilings, situated in the centre of the village of Kippax, within walking distance to schools, public transport and within easy reach of the A1/M1 motorway. The spacious accommodation briefly comprises entrance door leading to the large kitchen, dining, family room with a particular feature of this room being the large exposed stone feature fireplace with an inset wood burning stove, the kitchen area has a good range of units with a range of integrated appliances to include gas hob with extractor over, electric oven, dishwasher and fridge freezer and breakfast bar, a cosy lounge having French doors opening to the garden and an open staircase leading to the first floor. The first-floor landing leads to three bedrooms, the main bedroom having a range of full height wardrobes, one housing the central heating boiler and a family bathroom having high flush WC, rectangular panelled bath with shower over, side screen and pedestal wash basin. In addition, the property has PVCu double glazing with composite entrance door, gas central heating with combination boiler. Externally there is an allocated parking space, gate and brick paved pathway lead to the gated courtyard style garden with brick paved seating area leading to a lawned garden with flower bed. There is outside lighting and water tap.

An early viewing is an absolute must to fully appreciate all this charming cottage has to offer.
