Tucked away in a cul-de-sac location in Charleston and enjoying views over Weymouth's beautiful Fleet Lagoon is this two bedroom home. Offered with no onward chain, the property retains a well-proportioned WESTERLEY garden and private parking.

The home enjoys subtle positioning within the cul-de-sac increasing privacy with a small path that services a handful of properties. An initial porchway provides convenient storage to the home with access to the living room. The living room provides ample space for furnishings with the stairs adjacent. An open plan kitchen/diner is a generous room with ample fitted units and space for white goods. A door leads outside helping to merge the boundaries between home and garden.

The first floor benefits from two well-proportioned bedrooms. The first bedroom is a double with striking views over Weymouth's fleet lagoon giving a wonderful sense of space and also benefits a built in cupboard. Bedroom two is an additional double room. The family bathroom completes the first floor and comprises a large step in shower, hand basin and w.c complimented by decorative tiling.

Externally, the property boasts a westerly garden with rear access and an off-road parking space.
