Located directly on Weymouth's sought-after Esplanade, this first floor apartment offers breathtaking panoramic views across the beach and coastline from a large window framing perfectly the scene. The property has been run as a successful holiday let, presenting an excellent investment opportunity, while also being ideally suited as a seaside retreat. With a spacious open plan lounge and kitchen, modern finishes and one double bedroom, this apartment combines contemporary style with one of the finest seafront positions in the town.

The property is accessed via a communal entrance with a grand staircase leading to the first floor. Stepping into the apartment, the open plan kitchen and lounge immediately impresses with its sense of space and light. Expansive windows frame uninterrupted views over Weymouth Bay and the sandy beach, creating a stunning outlook from both the sitting and dining areas. The kitchen is fitted with a modern range of units and some integrated appliances, designed with ample space for cooking and entertaining while still enjoying the sea views.

The double bedroom is positioned to the rear of the apartment, offering a quieter retreat with neutral décor and a bright atmosphere. The bathroom is centrally located, fitted with a modern suite including shower enclosure, WC and wash basin, complemented by tiled surrounds.

With its generous living space, contemporary styling and truly exceptional seafront setting, this apartment presents a rare chance to secure a home or investment directly on Weymouth's Esplanade, with the beach and town centre quite literally on the doorstep.
