Photograph disclaimer – In order to capture the features of a particular room we will mostly use wide angle lens photography. This will sometimes distort the image slightly and also has the potential to make a room look larger. Please, therefore, refer also to the room measurements detailed within this Brochure.

Steeped in history this charming original farmhouse believed to date from around 1690-1720 has been sympathetically updated over time to blend period character. The accommodation includes an inviting entrance hall, a cosy lounge, an inner hallway with a downstairs w.c, utility/pantry and separate play room. There are five bedrooms including a master bedroom with en-suite facilities along with a well appointed family bathroom. Externally the property benefits from an integral split-level garage with additional storage to the rear. The fully enclosed rear garden offers a peaceful retreat while to the front, picturesque views stretch across the village green and pond, framed by the rolling hills of the Wolds beyond.

We urge you to view this interesting property.
