Step into luxury with this exceptional four-bedroom detached house, meticulously upgraded by its current owner to offer unparalleled comfort and style. Boasting a stunning handmade bespoke kitchen by Wolds Furniture, every corner of this home exudes elegance. The ground floor welcomes you with a beautifully tiled entrance hall, cloakroom, and a seamlessly flowing layout leading from the sitting room, with double doors to the dining room, to the bespoke kitchen featuring granite work surfaces and a Rangemaster electric range style cooker with an induction hob. Additional highlights include a utility room and a versatile playroom/office some of which is warmed by underfloor heating for added comfort. Upstairs, four double bedrooms await, each with fitted furniture, alongside an en-suite to the main bedroom and a traditional style bathroom. Outside, the meticulously landscaped garden offers a serene escape, complete with a paved patio seating area, summer house, and an array of flourishing flora, all within walled and fenced boundaries. The rear garden also boasts potential for a single-story extension to the side/rear, presenting the perfect opportunity for a garden room, planning ref: 22/02999/PLF. With a manicured front lawn, various shrubs, and a tarmac driveway leading to the integral garage, this home epitomises sophisticated living at its finest. With several eco-friendly and energy-efficient features, this property provides an EV Charge point to the front of the porch, solar panels with FIT payments which offer a sustainable way to generate electricity. Additionally, a separate solar thermal heating system for hot water further reduces the property's carbon footprint and energy costs.
