ABOUT THE PROPERTY

This charming double-fronted, five-bedroom family home, built in 1933, offers extensive and well-appointed accommodation while retaining original features such as picture rails, ceiling roses, and cast iron fireplaces. The current owner has extended and upgraded the property significantly, focusing particularly on the kitchen and bathrooms. The kitchen now includes ample storage, an island unit, integrated appliances, a Velux window, and a spacious, light-filled atmosphere overlooking the rear garden. The inviting entrance hall leads to the spacious sitting room and dining room, both with bay windows enjoying views of the front garden. Additional rooms on the ground floor include a utility/boot room, a laundry room, and a breakfast room. The property features a further dual-aspect living room, a ground floor bedroom and en-suite shower room which has potential for a self-contained annexe or separate accommodation. Upstairs, the home offers four bedrooms and a luxurious family bathroom where no expense has been spared. Outside, the property boasts a large, beautifully landscaped garden with expansive lawns, mature hedges, trees, and a historic well. The front of the property includes gated access to a generously sized driveway, while the rear features a double garage with an adjoining store. Solar panels on the property provide a sustainable way to generate electricity.

Blending classic charm with modern conveniences, makes this home perfect for family living.
