Photograph disclaimer – In order to capture the features of a particular room we will mostly use wide angle lens photography. This will sometimes distort the image slightly and also has the potential to make a room look larger. Please, therefore, refer also to the room measurements detailed within this Brochure.

This beautifully presented three-bedroom Victorian-era property seamlessly blends period charm with modern comfort, retaining many original features that add to its timeless appeal. Bathed in natural light, the home has a spacious, airy feel, particularly on the ground floor where the sun streams through the south-westerly facing kitchen, filling the space with warmth. The owners' impeccable taste is evident throughout, with a minimal yet homely décor that enhances the inviting atmosphere. The accommodation includes an entrance hall, a comfortable sitting room, a dining room, and a well-designed kitchen with a cleverly integrated pantry/utility area that makes the most of the available space. Upstairs, the property features three well-appointed bedrooms and a beautifully modern bathroom. A standout feature is the sun-filled rear garden, directly attached to the house and accessible through a gated entrance. This good-sized lawned garden enjoys sunlight throughout the day and includes a seating area, a shed, and a summer house, all surrounded by established trees and hedges. Additional features include three brick-built storage units and convenient side access from the front to the rear garden, making this home a rare find among terraced properties.
