Location

Low Farm Bungalow is situated on the edge of the desirable village of Peasenhall.

Peasenhall is considered one of the most picturesque and desirable villages in East Suffolk with its tearooms, renowned delicatessen (Emmett's), and well stocked village store. It adjoins the village of Sibton, which has a well respected public house, The White Horse.

The property is 6.7 miles from the medieval town of Framlingham, with its historic castle. Here there is an abundance of unique shops and businesses, as well as cafes and restaurants, and excellent schooling in both the public and state sectors, with Framlingham College and Thomas Mills High School. The coast is just 9 miles as the crow flies, and here there are well known and popular destinations such as Aldeburgh, Thorpeness, Southwold and Dunwich.
