1 Roussillon House, Chichester

A contemporary duplex apartment in prime location to the north of the city.

- Spacious entrance hall
- Stylish kitchen/dining room
- Practical utility room/cloakroom
- Fabulous dual aspect sitting room
- Three well-proportioned bedrooms
- Allocated parking
- One mile north of the city centre
- Attractive brick and flint building

Built in 2017, this fabulous 1,380 sq ft two-storey duplex apartment is set within a highly sought-after development less than a mile from the city centre. Featuring attractive flint and brick elevations, the property offers a bright, practical layout, ideal as a low-maintenance principal residence or a stylish weekend retreat.

The home benefits from its own private entrance, leading into a spacious entrance hall and through to the open-plan kitchen and dining area. The sleek, modern kitchen includes integrated appliances such as a fan oven, gas hob, cooker hood, dishwasher, fridge and freezer. A central island unit defines the dining space, which also offers room for a relaxed seating area by the window. A separate utility room and ground floor cloakroom add to the property's practicality.

Upstairs, the generous dual-aspect sitting room features a useful recessed area, perfect for a home office setup. The first floor also offers three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a stylish, contemporary family bathroom. Two of the bedrooms have built-in double wardrobes, whilst there is a further double wardrobe in the hall servicing bedroom three along with a linen cupboard.

Outside, the property benefits from allocated parking, a designated bin store and a secure cycle storage area at the rear.

Just 100 meters away is the expansive green space of Roussillon Park, complete with a children's play area and a community hall, ideal for families and social gatherings.
