Outside:

The property sits in a lovely rural setting off the lane with double opening gates opening onto a sweeping tarmac driveway which leads to a large level parking area for numerous vehicles. Here there is a detached outbuilding that incorporates a garage, workshop with door, window to rear garden and a covered woodstore. The front garden with the property is fully enclosed by mature hedging to front and side elevations. Across the roadside boundary there are a selection of mature trees and level lawned gardens. At the rear there is a raised decked seating area off the double doors in the lounge with balustrades and from here a lovely view across the property's rear garden and surrounding Shropshire countryside can be enjoyed. Off here are sweeping lawns, mature hedging to both side and rear elevations providing privacy, well established beds and borders with an array of mature shrubs, plants and trees. A productive vegetable section with 11 raised beds, a covered barbeque and seating area, decked area, garden shed and greenhouse. Whilst at the bottom of the garden there is a garden store. Sitting at the side of the property further lawned gardens intersperse with a good selection of fruit trees that include apples, pear, damson and cherry. There is then a working area with a further garden shed and a large detached cabin having double glazed windows, double opening doors to 3 elevations and a pellet stove. This space provides excellent homeworking/hobby space. There is a large established border with trellis work which breaks the front and side gardens.
