Outside:

The property sits in a lovely rural setting, away from the main road in the village and is accessed onto a tarmacadamed driveway which leads right up the back of the property and provides extensive parking. At the bottom of the driveway, there is a detached double garage having 2 up and over doors, light and power fitted, window and door to gardens. The grounds extend to 1/3 of an acre and are mature with high fencing providing privacy at the rear. There are good sized lawned gardens, well established with shrubs, plants and trees and a secondary gated access backs onto the lane.

Local Authority:

Shropshire, tax band - C

Agents Notes:

1. The property is of a sectional build, non-traditional construction and, therefore, it is highly unlikely that the property would obtain a mortgage.
2. The site offers scope for redevelopment or for the bungalow to be renovated to provide a lovely village home. However, if the site is redeveloped for more than a single dwelling, there will be an overage charge in place, further details from the Agents

Services:

Mains electricity and mains water with private drainage system. Heating is via an air source heat pump to radiators and solar panels on the roof for reduced energy costs. There is a mixture of single and double glazed windows. Flood Risk: No Risk Broadband speed: Basic 17Mbps, Superfast 38 Mbps
