Locally there are highly regarded primary schools nearby, a GP Practice, a collection of independent cafes, pubs and restaurants and a handful of excellent golf courses. The nearby towns of Bearsden and Milngavie offer a wider selection of shopping, retail, sports and hospitality facilities and are only a 5-minute drive from the development.

The countryside around Balmore is among the most beautiful to be found along Scotland's Central Belt, and the village acts as a tourist gateway to the scenic Campsie Hills. The location of Old Balmore Road can be found by travelling North from Bearsden along the A807, following the road through Bardowie toward Torrance and along a scenic route that visits Bardowie Loch and winds through pristine farmland before reaching the development itself, which is located on the right-hand side and just off of the main road.
