DESCRIPTION

A spacious and well-presented period home offering large gardens, off-road parking and timber garage. The accommodation is well laid out providing flexibility with the option of a ground floor bedroom and bathroom, if required.

Overall the property provides an enviable opportunity to enjoy a village and country lifestyle within this very popular and accessible Exe Valley location. The property and gardens benefit from a good degree of privacy, with ample accommodation and space within the grounds for family and recreation.

Just 3.5 miles from Tiverton, the popular village of Bickleigh is nestled within the scenic Exe Valley and provides a range of amenities including a primary school, church, the Fishermans Cot pub, as well as Bickleigh Mill and it's daytime restaurant.

Equidistant, Exeter lies to the south by just 10 miles, whilst to the north lies the M5 (Junction 27) alongside which sits Tiverton parkway train station, giving excellent access to wider road and rail networks
