Further amenities are available at Bude, Wadebridge and Launceston. At Launceston, there is access to the A30 which links the cities of Truro to Exeter. At Exeter there is access to the M5, mainline railway station (serving London Paddington) and an international airport.

DESCRIPTION

A well-presented detached dormer bungalow with a first floor annexe and charming gardens, enjoying panoramic views over the Atlantic Ocean and the village.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads into a light and airy entrance/garden room with access to both the front and rear of the property. A door off of the entrance leads into a most useful studio/workshop with a WC and providing excellent space away from the main accommodation, should one require a home office.

The kitchen comprises a range of wall mounted cupboards, base units and drawers with an inset sink, space for an electric oven and appliances and a boiler cupboard.

An inner hallway provides access to the reception rooms, ground floor bedrooms, former entrance porch and former front door, stairs to the first floor and a bathroom with a bath, WC and a wash hand basin.

The sitting room enjoys a wood burning stove and large windows showcasing the most impressive sea views and a lovely aspect over the garden. Double doors open into the dining room, which again, enjoys far reaching views and provides spacious additional reception room space.

The ground floor is completed by two double bedrooms with Bedroom 1 benefitting from built in storage.

The first floor offers a living space with a work surface, sink, integrated appliances and Velux windows. A door leads through to a double bedroom with an en suite shower room with a shower, WC and a wash hand basin.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached by its own drive with parking for numerous vehicles.

The gardens are a key feature of the property and due to the property being on a corner plot, wrap around the property.

To the front steps lead down to an area of lawn with a patio terrace, array of flower borders and a sunken seating area. The front garden also enjoys the backdrop of the far reaching views towards the sea that the property provides. To the rear there is a patio terrace with a covered storm porch seating area, a beautiful array of shrubs and flower beds which offer a delightful variety of colour in the spring and summer.

The gardens also benefit from two useful storage sheds, a greenhouse, vegetable beds, fruit trees and a fruit cage.
