ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation throughout the property has been refurbished and restored to a high standard by the current owners to create a warm and welcoming family home. Many character features have been retained including wooden and slate floors, exposed wooden beams and staircases along with slate window sills.

From the main entrance hall is a welcoming inner hallway, with a ground floor office/study. The sitting room is currently used as a breakfast room and has an impressive brick built inglenook fireplace housing a log burner. The kitchen/breakfast room has a number of integrated appliances including 2x dishwashers and a fully electric Aga, along with a range of base and wall mounted units, a pantry, various storage and polished granite work surfaces. There are doors from the kitchen to the rear patio, a beautifully landscaped setting catching the afternoon and evening sun. The lounge adjoining the kitchen provides an extra quiet seating area with an additional log burner whilst a further lower ground floor room acts as additional space for a games room, cinema room and suchlike.

A beautifully crafted wooden staircase presents the 5 bedrooms over 2 floors, 4 of which have been built in storage. The principal bedroom has a generous ensuite shower room and far reaching countryside views. Both double bedrooms on the first floor are serviced by a larger than average family bathroom, whilst a separate shower room services both double bedrooms on the second floor.

In addition, the accommodation extends beyond the ground floor kitchen with a further utility space or potential to use as a separate kitchen area subject to some slight alterations. There are various base and wall mounted units, with space and plumbing for white goods. A hallway leads to a cloakroom with WC, accessible shower room and various store cupboards whilst a separate sitting room presents itself as potential use for a self contained unit. Stairs from this rise to the first floor with a further bedroom and views overlooking the Cornish countryside.
