SITUATION

The property lies within the hamlet of Ashmill, which is a short distance from the village of Ashwater. The village offers a public house and an ancient Grade I listed church with an attractive stone tower. In addition to this is the Ashwater village hall and community shop/post office. The nearby market town of Holsworthy provides a comprehensive range of leisure, educational, health and shopping facilities including a Waitrose store and what is recognised as one of the leading livestock markets in the South West. Further leisure and shopping amenities are available in the nearby towns Launceston and Okehampton.

The rugged North Devon and North Cornwall coasts are within easy reach, along with Dartmoor National Park and Roadford Lake offering numerous recreational opportunities nearby. The A30 dual carriageway can be joined at Broadwoodwidger connecting Launceston and Okehampton and providing a further link between the cathedral cities of Truro and Exeter. Exeter offers an international airport, mainline train services to London Paddington and access to the national motorway network.

DESCRIPTION

A generous 5 bedroom semi-detached house of part cob and part brick construction, offering a range of outbuildings, stabling and extending in all to just over 2.6 acres.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads into the entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor and access into the two reception rooms.

The sitting room enjoys an aspect to the front and a feature fireplace.

The dining room is currently used as a sitting room with an exposed beamed ceiling, a door to the front and benefits from a fireplace housing a multifuel burning stove.

The kitchen comprises a range of wall mounted cupboards, base units and drawers, inset sink, space for appliances and access into a useful store room.

From the kitchen a door leads into a generous boot room/utility with a further range of cupboards, sink, space for a range cooker and a useful store room.

The first floor offers a landing, 5 bedrooms and a bathroom with a bath, WC and a wash hand basin.

Bedroom 1 is a lovely double bedroom which enjoys a view to the front over the hamlet.

OUTSIDE

The property offers a range of outbuildings which include a traditional stone barn, timber workshop and a stable block with two stables just off the generous yard with hardstanding which is accessed via two driveways, provides parking for numerous vehicles and leads up to the land above.

The gardens are positioned on the opposite side of the road from the main house and is predominantly laid to lawn with two greenhouses, timber shed and a range of productive vegetable beds.

In all the property extends to approximately 2.6 acres.
