SITUATION

The property is situated on the outskirts of the popular coastal village, Tintagel, in a generous and level plot. The village has numerous shops and facilities, including a mobile post office, general store, chemist, primary school, places of worship, doctors surgery, numerous pubs and restaurants and a wealth of amenities associated with a popular self-contained village. Positioned along the rugged North Cornish Coastline, the village has nearby access to the fantastic South West Coast Path which stretches throughout the coastline and provides access to a number of coastal walks and beaches. The A39 is some 5.7 miles distant allowing access to the towns of Bude, Camelford and Wadebridge, all of which provide a more comprehensive range of shopping and sporting facilities.

DESCRIPTION

A detached bungalow on the open market for the first time since 1964 offering huge potential. The property is understood to be of non-traditional construction comprising a timber frame with pre-cast concrete and dates back to 1964. The property would undoubtedly benefit from refurbishment throughout or offers a number of different opportunities being sat within a generous level plot, subject to gaining the necessary consents. Enjoying a South Westerly facing and well stocked rear garden, the property sits in a sought after position only a few miles from the North Cornish Coastline.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is clearly illustrated on the floorplan overleaf and briefly comprises the entrance porch leading to main hallway. A dual aspect sitting room with electric fire. The kitchen/breakfast room has a range of base and wall mounted units with various store cupboards and a pantry. There is space for a table and chairs with doors to the rear sun room and rear garden with a disabled access slope. There are 2 double bedrooms and a single bedroom, all serviced by the family bathroom and separate WC.

OUTSIDE

At the front of the property is a generous level lawn with tarmac driveway, space for at least 3 vehicles in front of the single garage which has an up and over door. To the rear of the property is a well stocked garden full of mature shrubs, trees and various plants including a rose garden with various colour throughout the seasons. The garden is mainly laid to lawn, enjoys a south westerly facing aspect and has a range of useful outbuildings including a potting shed, coal store and a summer house. There is space at both sides of the bungalow for maintenance.
