SITUATION

The property is situated in the small coastal hamlet of Halgabron a mile from the beach at Bossiney, St Nectans Glen and Rocky Valley. The historic village of Tintagel is close by and offers numerous shops and facilities, including a mobile post office, general store, chemist, primary school, places of worship, doctors surgery, numerous pubs and restaurants and a wealth of amenities associated with a popular self-contained coastal village.

The A39 is 5.1 miles away allowing access to the towns of Bude, Camelford and Launceston, all of which provide a more comprehensive range of shopping and sporting facilities. At Kennards House, Launceston there is access onto the A30 trunk road which links the cathedral cities of Truro and Exeter. The picturesque harbour of Boscastle is approximately 2.7 miles and the majestic Bodmin Moor can be accessed at Davidstow.

DESCRIPTION

Believed to date back to the 16th century and been extensively refurbished throughout, this most impressive former farmhouse offers; 4 bedrooms, 4 reception rooms, gardens, a former bake house and set within easy reach of the North Cornish coast.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door opens into the porch which benefits from impressive stained glass windows. The entrance hall with tiled flooring and stairs to the first floor has useful storage underneath. To the left of the hall the dining room boasts a feature fireplace, slate floor and a bay window with window shutters.

The snug offers a charming room to relax in with a gas fire and window with shutters.

The sitting room is a delightful size and offers a gas fire set within an impressive fireplace, double doors to the rear garden and stairs to bedroom 2.

The kitchen/breakfast room has slate flooring and comprises a range of base units and drawers with granite worktops, twin Belfast sink, integrated dishwasher, space for range style cooker and fridge freezer, and a door to the rear garden, off the kitchen is a utility room with a range of cupboards and space for appliances, Belfast sink, cupboard housing the boiler and water tank. A door leads through to the downstairs bathroom with bath, shower, WC and wash hand basin with heated towel rail.

The ground floor is completed by a further generous reception room which is currently being used as a fifth double bedroom. The room enjoys windows and a door to the front garden.
