SITUATION

The property is located in a delightful rural position on the outskirts of the hamlet of Trehunist, 3.3 miles from the village of Menheniot. The exceptional primary school at Quethiock is only 1.5 miles away. The popular village of Menheniot offers a Post office/general store, primary school, pub and places of worship. There are also local sporting facilities including tennis courts, cricket and football clubs. Menheniot Station lies a mile south of the village, which has links to Plymouth and Truro. Liskeard is located just 7.3 miles to the west and offers a more comprehensive range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities including sports centre, mainline railway station and the A38 trunk road, ensuring that Plymouth and the M5 motorway network at Exeter are readily accessible. The picturesque south Cornish coastline lies 9 miles away.

DESCRIPTION

This most impressive detached Cornish stone and slated farmhouse offers 4 bedrooms, 2 reception rooms, kitchen with Aga and conventional oven, delightful gardens, stable block, open barn, workshop and a pasture field. In all the property extends to approximately 2.34 acres.

ACCOMMODATION

An enclosed front porch leads into the entrance hall with doors to the sitting and dining room. The sitting room has an impressive fireplace with a wood burning stove and enjoys an aspect over the front garden and countryside beyond. The dining room boasts further character features with exposed beams, flagstone slate flooring and an inglenook fireplace with a wood burner. From the dining room a door leads to an inner lobby with stairs to the first floor and leads through to the kitchen which comprises a range of base units and drawers, Belfast sink, integrated oven with induction hob, electric Aga, dishwasher and a door into an impressive walk-in pantry. Off the inner lobby is a utility room with slate floor, Belfast sink, storage cupboards and a washing machine, door to the garden and an additional door to the downstairs shower room with a shower, wash hand basin and WC.

The first floor offers 4 bedrooms and a family bathroom comprising shower, roll top bath, wash hand basin, WC and airing cupboard. All of the bedrooms have wooden floors and bedroom 1 has a delightful vaulted ceiling with exposed A-frame beams and built-in wardrobes. Bedroom 2 has a feature fireplace and enjoys views across the valley.

OUTSIDE

A gravelled driveway leads to the yard which provides ample parking and a garage. There is a stable block with two stables, tack room (currently used as a small stable) and a further store/workshop, open barn and a large storage shed.

A path leads to the property's wonderful gardens which wrap around the house, which is mainly laid to lawn with a range of mature trees, shrubs and flower beds, garden shed, a small patio to the rear provides a private and peaceful spot for outdoor dining.

From the stable block, access leads to the land with a field shelter. The property in all extends to approximately 2.34 acres.
