SITUATION

The property is located a short distance from the thriving market town of Holsworthy and just over 12 miles from the North Cornish coast. The market town of Holsworthy lies 3.2 miles to the west with a variety of shops including a Waitrose supermarket, banks, hairdressers, tea shops, builders merchants, and agricultural and equestrian based retailer, Mole Valley Farmers. Additionally, in Holsworthy there are doctors, dentists, veterinary surgeries, educational facilities from pre-school to GCSE including the independent Shebbear College. Bude is to the west with access to the beautiful North Cornish coast and the A30 can be reached at Okehampton to the south east, with Dartmoor being easily accessible.

DESCRIPTION

A rare and exciting opportunity to purchase a barn with permitted development to be converted into two dwellings, set within approximately 2.02 acres of it's own land and views over surrounding countryside.

The Barn has prior approval for change of use to a dwelling under application number: 1/0955/2024/AGMB with Torridge District Council.

A former agricultural barn (11.8m x 18.3m) of traditional wood and steel construction with a concrete base and timber cladding. The planning permission offers an exciting opportunity to convert the building into two semi-detached dwellings offering open plan living accommodation with a sitting room and utility and 2 bedrooms each.

Outside the property will benefit from garden areas, off road parking, and access suitable for large vehicles. The property also benefits from an adjoining gently pasture paddock. In all extends to approximately 2.02 acres.
