SITUATION

Nestled at the end of a private driveway, this property enjoys a desirable position just off one of Launceston's most sought-after roads. Located on the well-regarded Dunheved Road, it offers a gentle, level stroll into the vibrant town centre, home to a wide array of shops, schools, leisure venues and sports facilities. The A30 provides excellent access between Truro and Exeter—where mainline rail services connect to London Paddington, and Exeter also offers international air travel. For coastal adventures, some of North Cornwall's most picturesque beaches—including Bude and Widemouth Bay—are within approximately 30 minutes' drive.

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully upgraded period home blends timeless character with modern refinement, offering generous living space and a flexible layout to suit a range of lifestyles. Thoughtfully enhanced throughout, the property includes a fully self-contained two-bedroom annexe, perfect for multigenerational living, guest accommodation, or generating rental income. Set within meticulously landscaped gardens of approximately 0.8 acres, this is a home that truly stands out. Early viewing is strongly advised to appreciate everything it has to offer, inside and out.

ACCOMMODATION

Step inside to discover a home where period charm meets modern comfort. Stylishly presented throughout, this property retains original features, including high ceilings, elegant fireplaces, and classic tiled hallways, while offering a contemporary layout ideal for today's lifestyles. The ground floor boasts a striking entrance hall, leading to a spacious open-plan kitchen/diner with direct access to a sun-soaked terrace, perfect for entertaining or relaxing. Two generous reception rooms provide versatile living and hosting space, and there's the added bonus of a cellar for extra storage.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a sleek family bathroom. The top floor continues to impress with additional double bedrooms and a dedicated office—ideal for remote working or study.

Connected via internal doors or with its own private entrance, the fully self-contained two-bedroom annexe features a well-equipped kitchen/diner, a cosy sitting room with an attractive fireplace and two double bedrooms. A spacious bathroom with separate shower completes the space, making it an ideal solution for extended family, guests, or generating additional income.
