SITUATION

The property is situated within close proximity to the town centre of Bovey Tracey, known as the "Gateway to the Moors". A short distance from the property is access to a wide route of local cycle paths that lead to Lustleigh and Moretonhampstead via the old railway line and routes back to Newton Abbot. This bustling town offers a comprehensive range of shops and amenities including a health centre, veterinary clinic, library, primary school, cafes, inns and churches. The town also benefits from good sporting facilities, including a swimming pool, sports field, 9-hole golf course, cricket club, bowling green, football pitches and tennis courts.

The A38 dual carriageway, linking Exeter and Plymouth to the M5 motorway is within two miles of the town and there are mainline railway stations to London Paddington at both Newton Abbot and Exeter. Exeter International Airport is within easy travelling distance. First class educational facilities, can be found nearby whilst Dartmoor National Park and the sandy beaches of Teignmouth and Torbay are only a short distance away.

DESCRIPTION

1 Atway Cottage is a most charming period property, combining a fine balance of rustic period charm with well presented and welcoming accommodation across two storeys. With over 1,400sqft this ample cottage offers idyllic 'edge of town' living with its easy access to the town centre while enjoying the stunning Dartmoor National Park on its doorstep. Enjoying attractive reception space across the ground floor and three bedrooms on the first floor, this charming home continues outside as well with a pleasant garden enjoying views towards the surrounding countryside while also benefitting from offroad parking and a garage.

ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor offers two versatile reception spaces, most notably its dual aspect sitting room, with a superb range of exposed beams showcased against an attractive inglenook fireplace with granite surrounds and an inset wood burner. The other reception space currently provides an area for a dining room with terracotta tiled flooring and a gas-fired Rayburn, while a window seat provides an outlook across the properties garden. To the rear of the property is the kitchen, a contemporary style with shaker style wall and base units paired with wooden walnut coloured worktops and an integral electric oven and induction hob.

On the first floor are the properties three bedrooms, two of which are double in size. The master bedroom enjoys a dual aspect with an outlook across the properties garden and towards Dartmoor National Park. The family bathroom comprises a separate shower and roll-top bath as well as a wash basin and WC.

OUTSIDE

From the road is access to driveway parking with tandem parking spaces for multiple cars in front of a single garage.

A pedestrian gate provides access from the road to the courtyard garden providing ample space for outdoor seating or dining while providing access to an outhouse with power and lighting. Steps lead to the lawned garden which stretches to a productive area of garden with vegetable beds and space for chickens. There is a range of well stocked flower beds and fruit trees including apple, pear and quince.

SERVICES

All mains services connected, Heating is provided by a wood burner and gas fired rayburn. Superfast broadband available to the property. Mobile coverage is available via all major providers.
