SITUATION

The property is conveniently located just a short stroll from the heart of the highly sought-after village of Ipplepen. This charming village offers a wide range of amenities, including a small supermarket, a post office, a well-regarded primary school, two churches, a welcoming public house, a medical centre, and a sports field with a play park. The village hall also serves as a hub for various community activities, making Ipplepen a vibrant and well-connected place to live.

One of the major advantages of this location is its easy access to two of Devon's most renowned natural attractions: the rugged beauty of Dartmoor National Park and the stunning South Devon coastline. Both of these areas, celebrated for their breathtaking landscapes and outdoor recreational opportunities, are within a 30-minute drive.

Additionally, the village is strategically situated between the market town of Newton Abbot and the historic castle town of Totnes. Both towns provide an even broader array of amenities, including mainline railway stations with direct connections to London Paddington. The proximity to the A38 Devon Expressway further enhances the appeal, offering convenient commuting options to the cities of Plymouth, Exeter, and beyond via the M5 Motorway. This location truly combines the tranquility of village life with the convenience of accessible transportation links and nearby urban centres.
