SITUATION

Abbotskerswell benefits from a strong community atmosphere, having a highly regarded preschool and primary school with a Good OFSTED rating. There is a general store and Post Office catering for most day-to-day needs and a popular coffee & crafts shop. The thatched village pub adjoins the beautiful village church. Abbotskerswell benefits from a park and tennis courts. There is also a village cricket ground with both junior and senior teams. Other activities in the village include the twinning association, yoga and netball.

The village is accessed off the A381/Totnes Road, providing easy access to the medieval town of Totnes and the bustling market town of Newton Abbot - with its comprehensive shopping and schooling facilities. Newton Abbot boasts a main line railway station and there are plenty of golf courses within the area. The A380 is a short drive providing speedy access to Exeter City centre. Torbay and Teignmouth are nearby, offering easy access to the coast and water activities.

DESCRIPTION

This unique modern family home, built in 2002, combines the charm of a traditional Devon cottage with contemporary comforts. Ideally situated in the heart of a popular and accessible village, this home offers character, convenience, and plenty of space for family living, blending 'mod-con's with traditional features including a thatched roof that was renewed in 2012. Designed with good ceiling height throughout, it features five spacious bedrooms, an open-plan kitchen/dining room, and a cosy sitting room with a fireplace. The property is serviced externally via off-road parking, a garage, and a pleasant low maintenance rear garden.

ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor offers versatile reception spaces, beginning with the inviting sitting room, where wooden floors and double doors with a western aspect allow plenty of natural light to flood the room. The centerpiece is a traditional fireplace with an oak mantle, stone hearth, and surround, housing a charming wood burner. Adjacent to this is the second reception room, ideal as a study or snug, perfect for an informal sitting area.

The heart of the home is the spacious family kitchen, where limestone flooring runs throughout and ample space accommodates a dining table, set in front of double doors that open to the garden. The kitchen boasts a range of painted wooden units with solid wooden worktops, a Belfast sink, and space for a dishwasher and fridge-freezer. At its center is an AGA set within a stone fireplace with an oak mantle. A utility room, conveniently accessed from the kitchen, offers additional storage, plumbing for a washing machine, and space for a tumble dryer. A cloakroom is also accessible from the entrance hall.

Upstairs, four of the property’s five double bedrooms are located on the first floor, all accessible from the central landing. The master bedroom, situated to the rear of the house, features built-in storage with traditional wooden doors and an en suite shower room with a shower, wash basin, and WC. A family bathroom serves the remaining three bedrooms, featuring traditional fittings, including an impressive roll-top bath with an overhead shower, wash basin, and WC.

The expansive second floor hosts a large guest bedroom with generous sleeping and reception areas, accessible via a central staircase. This floor also benefits from plentiful eaves storage and an en suite shower room, featuring a walk-in shower, wash basin, and WC.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property is off-road parking for multiple vehicles and access to the properties single garage with traditional wooden doors to the front and rear of the property.

At the back is a split level garden, with a walk way providing pedestrian access to the rear with steps leading to a patio area suitable for outdoor seating or dining. An astro-turf garden stretches beyond the patio providing a low maintenance space to enjoy the serenity of village life, while the leylandii hedging provides the boundary on two of the rear aspects.

SERVICES

All mains services connected with gas fired central heating. Ofcom advises there is superfast broadband available to the property and limited mobile coverage via the major networks.
