SITUATION

Nestled in the heart of the tiny and tranquil hamlet of Sigford, enjoying a peaceful setting surrounded by the extensive Dartmoor countryside. The area offers immediate access to walks, rides and open moorland, perfect for those seeking an active rural lifestyle. Just two miles to the southeast is the bustling moorland town of Ashburton, with a superb range of independent shops, artisan food outlets, and excellent schooling. The A38 dual carriageway is within easy reach at nearby Caton, placing Exeter, Plymouth and the wider South Devon region within convenient commuting distance.

DESCRIPTION

Little Sigford Cottage forms the centre of a picturesque row of three stone-built cottages, tucked below the quiet lane and enjoying lovely views across surrounding fields and wooded slopes. The cottage has been tastefully extended and updated, blending traditional features with modern-day comforts. Notable highlights include a granite fireplace with wood-burning stove, exposed stonework and ceiling beams, and a smartly fitted kitchen-dining room.

ACCOMMODATION

A spacious entrance hall with timber panelling and wood-style flooring leads into the main living room, a cosy and welcoming space featuring a granite fireplace with wood-burner, a ceiling beam and window seat overlooking the front. Beyond lies the well-equipped kitchen-dining room with a stylish range of white gloss units, distressed wood-effect worktops and Beko range cooker with LPG hob. A door leads to the rear yard and store.

Upstairs, the first floor landing is characterful, with exposed timbers and a decorative (non-working) fireplace. There are three bedrooms in total—two generous doubles and a third smaller bedroom, currently used as a study or child's room. The principal bedroom enjoys countryside views and has an en-suite shower room. A smart family bathroom is fitted with a modern white suite and over-bath rainfall shower.

OUTSIDE

At the front of the cottage is a charming, paved courtyard garden with a sunny south-westerly aspect—ideal for sitting out and enjoying the peaceful setting. Enclosed and low-maintenance, it offers space for a small table and chairs, with room for potted plants. To the rear is a small yard and useful outhouse/store.

SERVICES

Mains electricity and water. Private drainage. LPG-fired central heating (via external cylinders). Ofcom advises standard broadband and very limited mobile coverage is available to the property.

DIRECTIONS

From Ashburton, join the A38 at the Linhay junction heading towards Exeter. Ignore the first exit signposted Sigford, and instead take the next exit for Caton. At the top of the slip road, go straight across at Hook Cross, following signs for Sigford. After approximately one mile, turn right at the 'T' junction. The property will be found on the right-hand side beside the red telephone box.
