SITUATION

The property is located outside of Wilmington with lovely views across the countryside. The village is set along the A35 surrounded by the rolling hills of East Devon and the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. There is a pub, village hall as well as St Cuthbert's Church. Alongside the regular bus routes there is a school bus that operates to Colyton Grammar School and the nearby popular village primary school in Offwell is also easily accessed.

The market town of Honiton is a short distance and provides an extensive range of amenities, including schooling. In addition to the range of shops and cafes the town's train station is well situated on the Exeter to London Waterloo line. Honiton also additionally offers easy access to the A30/A303.

Furthermore, the bustling city of Exeter is accessed along the A30 dual carriageway with an international airport providing a number of domestic and international flights and access to Junction 30 of the M5. The picturesque Jurassic Coast at Seaton is an easy drive away.

DESCRIPTION

The property is a substantial five bedroom family home, set back from the road with a gated driveway that ensures privacy and offers breath taking panoramic views of the countryside.

The house provides spacious and versatile accommodation, with multiple reception rooms designed to suit a variety of needs. On the ground floor, the hallway leads to bright, welcoming living spaces, including a generously sized sitting room. This room features a dual aspect with views of the front garden and beyond, complemented by a modern log burner that adds warmth and character. The kitchen is well appointed, with quality fittings, ample space for a dining table, and an attractive tiled floor. It also includes a large pantry and a separate utility room. Additional ground floor spaces include a dining room that opens onto the conservatory, a downstairs bedroom, and a convenient shower room.

The property also includes a self contained annexe accessible from the main house. This space is ideal for multi-generational living or as an extension of the main home. It features two bedrooms, a shower room, and its own private entrance.

On the first floor of the main house, there are two more bedrooms and a well equipped family bathroom, offering comfortable living arrangements.

OUTSIDE

The grounds of this property are a standout feature, extending to approximately 1.75 acres and offering stunning views of the surrounding countryside. A sweeping driveway leads to the property, providing ample parking for multiple vehicles.

The outdoor space includes a mix of formal and natural elements, with well maintained lawns, a variety of shrubs, and thoughtfully arranged borders. There are woodland areas to explore, adding a sense of tranquillity and charm, alongside a picturesque pond that enhances the landscape.

Patio areas provide the perfect setting for outdoor dining and entertaining, making it easy to take full advantage of the breath taking surroundings.

SERVICES

The property benefits from private drainage and water systems, is connected to mains electricity, and features oil-fired central heating, ensuring efficient and reliable utility services. Superfast broadband available (up to 71 mb/s), mobile coverage available inside with O2 and Vodafone; outside with EE, O2, Three and Vodafone (Ofcom)

A wide-angle photograph of a garden and landscape. In the foreground, a dark asphalt road runs along the bottom edge. A gravel path leads from the road into a garden area. The garden features a low, neatly trimmed green hedge that curves around a gravel bed. To the left of the hedge, there are various plants, including a large bush with white flowers and some smaller green shrubs. In the background, a lush green landscape unfolds with rolling hills covered in dense trees and grass. A small cluster of buildings is visible on a hillside. The sky is bright blue with scattered white clouds.
