DESCRIPTION

Crucks Barn is a property rich in history and character, with origins that date back to the 15th century. Originally constructed as a cider barn with a separate cottage, the building is crafted from traditional stone and cob, with exterior rendering and a charming thatched roof, which is now due for replacement. Over the years, these two historic structures have been merged into a single property, united by a striking glass and timber atrium-style entrance that blends seamlessly blends heritage with modern design.

The architectural details of Crucks Barn highlight its timeless charm. Exposed stone walls and original timbers reflect the craftsmanship of the 1400s, offering a tangible connection to the past. The entrance hall is particularly impressive, with its vaulted ceiling, flagstone flooring, and expansive glass-paneled windows that allow natural light to flood the space. The addition of a vaulted glass roof creates a sense of openness and grandeur while framing views of the surrounding countryside.

The current layout of the property offers versatile accommodation, making it an ideal choice for multi-generational family living or as a potential source of income. Thoughtfully designed spaces blend modern convenience with the rustic appeal of its historical features, offering flexibility for a variety of lifestyles. Crucks Barn is a unique opportunity to own a piece of history, combining the allure of centuries-old architecture with the possibilities of contemporary living.

MAIN COTTAGE

The kitchen and breakfast room is a bright and inviting space, enjoying a triple-aspect layout that fills the area with natural light. It features fitted cupboards, solid wood worktops, and a classic Belfast sink, accompanied by an electric oven and ceramic hob, blending functionality with rustic charm.

The spacious lounge and dining area is a highlight of the property, offering a warm and character-filled reception space. A vaulted ceiling and a galleried landing above create a sense of openness, while exposed beams and full-length front-facing windows add to its charm. Double doors lead directly to the garden, enhancing the connection between indoor and outdoor living. A multi-fuel burner, set into an exposed brick fireplace with a stone hearth, serves as the centerpiece, adding both warmth and aesthetic appeal.

The first floor hosts a stunning mezzanine bedroom and dressing room area, featuring an open-plan layout with wood flooring and exposed ceiling beams. This serene retreat is complemented by an ensuite bathroom, complete with a roll-top bath, a wash hand basin, a WC, and a cupboard housing the water cylinder. The design beautifully marries historic charm with contemporary comfort.

ANNEXE

The annexe offers a self-contained living space, perfect for guests, extended family, or rental income, with private access via a stable door from the rear garden. The ground floor includes a generously sized lounge featuring a wood-burning stove, a picture window with views to the front aspect, and wood flooring. A staircase rises to the first floor, adding a charming connection to the upstairs living quarters.

The kitchen and breakfast room is situated at the rear, overlooking the garden. It boasts fitted cupboards with solid wood worktops, an electric oven, and a ceramic hob, all complemented by tiled flooring and exposed ceiling beams. A stable door provides additional access to the garden, while another doorway leads conveniently into the garage. A practical downstairs cloakroom adds extra functionality to this level.

Upstairs, the annexe comprises two bedrooms, both showcasing solid wood flooring and exposed ceiling beams that enhance their character. The main bedroom is bright and airy, featuring a picture window to the front aspect. The second bedroom is well-proportioned and benefits from a built-in wardrobe, adding practical storage. A family bathroom completes the first floor, equipped with a fitted bath, wash hand basin, WC, and tiled splashbacks. The thoughtful design ensures a comfortable and stylish living experience within this separate accommodation.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a paved parking area to the front, offering ample space for vehicles, with a garage conveniently located to one side. The garage is fitted with double wooden doors and benefits from power and light connections, making it a versatile space. It also provides internal access to the annexe and houses a cloakroom for additional practicality.

To the rear, a generous garden provides a delightful outdoor retreat. Mainly laid to lawn, the space is perfect for relaxation or family activities. A decked sun terrace offers an ideal spot for outdoor dining or enjoying warm weather, seamlessly blending functionality and tranquility in this charming setting.

SERVICES

All mains services connected. Two woodburning stoves.

Standard and superfast broadband available. EE, Three, O2 and Vodafone mobile networks available outside (Ofcom).
