SITUATION

Honiton is a charming market town on the southern edge of the Blackdown Hills, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Just 10 miles away is Sidmouth, part of the stunning Jurassic Coast and a natural World Heritage Site, offering spectacular landscapes nearby.

The town features a range of independent shops, cafes, and essential amenities, including two primary schools and a secondary school, making it ideal for families.

Honiton's excellent transport links add to its appeal. The railway station offers a direct service to London Waterloo, while the A30 provides quick access to Exeter. Exeter connects to the M5 motorway, has a mainline rail service to London Paddington, and hosts an international airport. Taunton, 28 miles northeast, offers additional amenities and road links, including the A303 and A35, for cross-country travel.

With its scenic beauty, convenient amenities, and great connectivity, Honiton offers the perfect mix of rural charm and modern accessibility.
