Reached via a 300-meter drive through farmland, this secluded property offers privacy just minutes from the community-minded village of Membury. Set in the Blackdown Hills National Landscape, it's surrounded by nearby paths and trails, yet only 10 minutes from the nearest supermarket and other conveniences.

The current owners have extensively renovated the cottage, adding quality features like a modern high specification kitchen with Silestone worktops, new triple-glazed windows, modern wood burner and high insulation; while preserving the charm of the original flint exterior and flagstone flooring.

There is a large garage and workshop with a spiral stair to a loft, ideal for a study. The property is set in 8.2 acres, including a landscaped garden and diverse mix of mature and planted woodland. Features include clearings with seating, a polytunnel, fruit cage, chicken run, fire pit area, sheds, and a spring-fed pond that flows into a woodland stream running the length of the eastern boundary.

Services include mains electric, private water supply, (from spring) drainage via treatment plant. Starlink internet connection (up to 200 Mbps) and standard broadband (up to 27 Mbps) and mobile coverage outside via EE, Three and Vodafone, O2 maybe limited, likely 5G via EE (OFCOM). Solar PV with FIT.
