Lyme Regis, a renowned historic coastal town on the picturesque Jurassic Coast, is celebrated for its iconic Cobb. This charming town offers excellent shopping, business, and leisure amenities, along with both primary and secondary schools. The surrounding area is designated as a National Landscape (formerly AONB), providing easy access to the countryside and the South West Coast Path. Additionally, the nearby market town of Axminster offers convenient mainline rail services to Exeter St Davids and London Waterloo.

Occupying an elevated position, the property boasts sweeping coastal and countryside views visible from both the home and its surrounding garden. At the heart of the property is a bright and airy kitchen/diner, complete with double doors opening onto a balcony and a window looking towards the town and the sea. The spacious, triple aspect sitting room features a charming fireplace, creating an inviting space for both relaxing and entertaining. There are three well proportioned bedrooms which are complemented by a well appointed family bathroom. Upstairs, the principal bedroom offers a private retreat with its own ensuite shower room and elevated views over the coastline.

The gardens are predominantly laid to lawn, bordered by mature hedging that offers a sense of seclusion and privacy. From various vantage points within the garden, coastal views can be fully appreciated. Additional features include an integral garage and ample driveway parking, providing both convenience and functionality, as well as a good-sized storage area, accessed from the rear of the house.

All mains services connected (water metered). Gas-fired central heating. Standard and superfast broadband available. Mobile signal likely with Three, EE, O2 and Vodafone (Ofcom).
