The property is located in the centre of Honiton, an attractive and busy market town renowned for its numerous antique shops. In addition the town provides a very good range of day to day amenities including a variety of specialist shops, as well as a Tesco supermarket, schools, recreational facilities and a main line station on the London-Waterloo line. The A30 dual carriageway provides quick access to the cathedral city of Exeter and beyond, and to Exeter regional airport.

Portland House is a three-storey Georgian townhouse with cellar, offering spacious and flexible accommodation retaining many original features, including sash bow windows, deep skirting boards, ornate coving, and a striking octagonal stairwell window. Previously used as both a residence and for commercial purposes, the ground floor has consent for a shop with family home accommodation about, allowing a mixed-use or live/work arrangements.

The ground floor includes a generous room to the front partly open to a rear reception room, conservatory, and WC. On the first and second floors are four double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a kitchenette offering potential for self-contained living. The large cellar provides excellent storage or scope for further development (subject to consents).

To the rear, a private walled garden features a patio and terraced areas, mature planting, pond, and ornamental fountain.

All mains services connected. Gas central heating. Standard, superfast and ultrafast broadband available. Mobile signal available with all major networks (Ofcom, 2025).

Please note there is a restriction against use as a public house, butcher, fishmongers, greengrocer, or other use that will be a nuisance etc, to the adjoining properties.
