SITUATION

Newton Poppleford is a friendly and well-connected village with a primary school, convenience store, and popular pub all within walking distance. The coast at Sidmouth is just four miles away, offering independent shops, cafes, and a renowned esplanade. The surrounding area is a haven for walkers and outdoor enthusiasts, with the South West Coast Path and the dramatic Jurassic Coastline both within easy reach. Exeter and the M5 are readily accessible for commuters, with rail links available from nearby stations.

DESCRIPTION

The ground floor features a bright entrance hall leading to a spacious dual-aspect living room, providing a comfortable area for everyday use or entertaining. To the rear, the kitchen and dining room offer a well-planned, sociable layout with modern fittings, generous worktop space, and access to the garden. A cloakroom completes the ground floor. On the first floor, there is a double bedroom with an en suite shower room, three further good-sized bedrooms, and a family bathroom fitted with a modern suite.

The second floor is occupied by the principal bedroom suite, enjoying far-reaching views and a large en suite with roll-top bath and separate shower. This floor provides a private and spacious retreat.

OUTSIDE

Outside, the property is attractively presented with a well-maintained brick exterior, double glazing throughout, and a recently renewed roof. To the front, a private driveway provides off-road parking and access to the garage. The rear garden is enclosed and easily maintained, featuring a patio and balcony area that offer additional outdoor space as well as direct access from the living room.

SERVICES

Mains electricity, water and drainage. Oil-fired central heating. The thatch has been professionally replaced with a high-quality roof, ensuring low-maintenance ownership moving forward.

Standard, Superfast and Ultrafast broadband available. Good mobile signal outside and in home (Ofcom, 2025).
