46 Bainbridge Road Sedbergh, Cumbria LA10 5AU

46 Bainbridge Road is a very spacious late Victorian terraced property on a popular road in the historical market town of Sedbergh which borders the Yorkshire Dales National Park. It is within walking distance of many local amenities including shops, schools, Doctors and Dentist surgeries, library, coffee shops and pubs.

The accommodation is spread over three floors. To the ground floor and entering through the front door there is a wide hallway leading into the good-sized lounge at the front of the property with feature fireplace and wooden mantle piece. To the rear is the dining room which has a walk-in cupboard under the stairs and an electric stove. The well fitted kitchen has plenty of wall and base units, range cooker, three windows and door to the rear garden.

The first floor has four of the six bedrooms, two to the front and two to the rear along with the house bathroom which has a bath, corner shower cubicle, wash basin, wc and velux window.

Completing the accommodation on the third floor are the remaining two double bedrooms with one of them en suite, velux windows and built in storage under the eaves.

The property maintains some original features and benefits from mains gas, electric, water and drainage, double glazing and a combi boiler firing the central heating. There is plenty of storage throughout and some double glazing.

Externally the property has it's own narrow driveway leading to the rear which also allows access to the neighbouring properties. There is a small front gated garden and a larger grassed garden and patio area with a good-sized stone outbuilding along with a smaller one which was originally the outside wc. Bainbridge Road has on street parking.

Viewings highly recommended to appreciate it's space and the surrounding area.
