Located in the peaceful cul-de-sac of Spring Close, Borehamwood, this charming semi-detached three-bedroom house offers an exciting opportunity to create your perfect family home. Built in the 1950s, it combines original character with incredible potential for modern living.

Upon entering the property, you are greeted by a spacious kitchen/diner, providing ample space for family meals and gatherings, with plenty of room to update and personalise. The large reception room, perfect for both relaxing and entertaining, follows, offering a comfortable space for the whole family. The ground floor also includes a convenient downstairs toilet for added practicality.

Upstairs, you'll find three generously sized bedrooms, offering plenty of space for a growing family or anyone in need of extra room. The family bathroom is also located on this floor, serving the needs of the household.

The real potential of this home lies in its extension possibilities (STPP). With off-street parking for several vehicles, a huge rear garden, and a separate garage, there's ample space to extend the property to the side, rear, and even into the loft, allowing you to create your dream living space.

The property is just a short walk from the High Street, providing easy access to shops, schools, and parks. This makes it the ideal location for those seeking a vibrant, well-connected community.

With fantastic potential for further development, this home offers the perfect blend of space, character, and opportunity.
