This three-storey, freehold ex-local authority house is superbly situated on a leafy residential street in the heart of Stoke Newington. Requiring full refurbishment throughout and offered for sale with no onward chain, generous accommodation of approx. 1,100 sq ft includes, to the ground floor, kitchen-diner with doors opening onto a south-facing patio, cloakroom and a substantial storage room. A centrally located turnaround staircase leads up to the first of three double bedrooms and a large reception room with dual, south-facing windows on the first floor. The staircase then continues to the top, with its two bedrooms, bathroom and access to a generous loft.

Popular schools and the many amenities of Church Street are nearby, whilst the open spaces of Clissold Park and atmospheric Abney Park Cemetery are within walking distance. Buses are regular along adjacent Albion Road although Canonbury, Rectory Road and Dalston stations are all also within walking distance.
