Cowley Street, London

Description

This exceptional property features a fitted kitchen seamlessly integrated with an open-plan dining room, perfect for modern living and entertaining. The spacious double reception room benefits from a dual aspect, providing an abundance of natural light and a versatile layout for both relaxation and hosting guests.

The master bedroom is a luxurious retreat, complete with an ensuite bathroom and fitted wardrobes, offering ample storage space. There are three additional well-appointed bedrooms, providing comfort and flexibility for family living or guest accommodation.

The property also includes two stylish bathrooms and a convenient guest WC, ensuring practicality and ease for daily living. This home combines contemporary design with functional spaces, ideal for a comfortable and sophisticated lifestyle.

The house has the advantage of a double garage, large enough for most cars, which is entered from Great Peter Street at the rear of the property, with a covered link through to the main house. Residents can apply for a 90% discount on the Congestion Charge.

There is the exciting potential of acquiring planning permission for a raised garden above the double garage to match the neighbouring property. All enquires would need to be with WCC and no applications have been made.

Location

Cowley Street, one of the quietest streets in London, is located between Great Peter Street and Great College Street in a quarter often referred to as 'Old Westminster' and forms part of an exceptionally well-preserved enclave of early 18th Century housing together with Barton Street, Lord North Street and the surviving original parts of Smith Square.

It is conveniently located for transport links across London and further afield, with both Westminster and St James's Park underground stations and Victoria and Waterloo mainline stations easily accessible. The Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, St John's Church Smith Square and the River Thames are all within close proximity.
