Originally built in 1982 and extensively refurbished over the last nine years, Orchard House provides adaptable accommodation with efficient underfloor heating and two self-contained studio apartments, ideal for guests or extended family.

The property opens into a spacious parking area for up to four cars, leading to an inviting hall with ample storage, a utility room, and guest WC. Natural oak floors run throughout the ground level. The open-plan sitting and dining room features a bespoke Bath-stone fireplace and double doors opening onto a large deck and gardens. A first-floor studio apartment provides independent living with a kitchenette, shower room, and private garden access. The ground-floor studio offers similar features with its own private entrance.

The Garden Room, with wraparound floor-to-ceiling windows, opens onto the deck, connecting the indoor space with lush outdoor views.
