Marsham Street, Westminster

Set within a sought-after portered development on Marsham Street, this rare front-to-back apartment offers an excellent balance of light, space and location in the heart of Westminster.

Measuring approximately 664 square feet, the property enjoys dual aspects—an east-facing reception room that captures the morning light, and a west-facing bedroom that benefits from the afternoon sun. The layout is both practical and generous, with a well-proportioned reception room, a spacious double bedroom, and a neatly presented bathroom. The apartment is in good condition throughout, offering a comfortable home that can be moved into immediately, while still allowing scope for a buyer to add their own touches over time.

Residents benefit from the reassurance of a 24-hour porter and the long-term advantages of a share of freehold, making this a sound proposition for both end-users and investors alike.

Ideally positioned for the amenities and transport links of Westminster, Victoria and St James's, this is a quietly situated apartment that delivers on convenience, comfort and charm in equal measure.
