Occupying the upper floors of an attractive period building, this well-presented maisonette offers well-balanced accommodation, excellent natural light, and the rare advantage of a private terrace.

The property is entered on the first floor, where a welcoming hallway leads to a guest cloakroom positioned on the half landing. The second floor comprises a generously proportioned reception room, extending the full width of the building and enhanced by a feature fireplace and large sash windows, affording an abundance of natural light. To the rear, a separate kitchen provides ample space for dining.

The upper floor comprises two double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes, served by a family bathroom. Additional storage is available in the eaves, providing practical ancillary space. Externally, a private roof terrace is accessed from the first floor landing, situated just outside the apartment's entrance, offering a secluded outdoor area.

Denbigh Street is a quiet, tree-lined residential road forming part of Pimlico's historic grid, originally laid out by the master builder Thomas Cubitt in the mid-19th century. The area is renowned for its elegant stucco-fronted houses and proximity to a wide range of amenities, including the boutiques and restaurants of Pimlico Road, Sloane Square, and Elizabeth Street. Excellent transport links are available at nearby Pimlico and Victoria stations, providing direct services across London and beyond.
