Cadogan Place, Belgravia, London

Set in a handsome white stucco period building with the benefit of a resident caretaker, the apartment extends to approximately 1,412 square feet and enjoys a wonderful sense of space and light throughout.

The reception areas open via French doors onto west facing balconies overlooking the private communal gardens, providing a peaceful outlook rarely found so centrally. Residents also enjoy access to the square's beautifully maintained gardens and two private tennis courts, creating a unique balance of tranquility and lifestyle amenity in the heart of the city.

The apartment comprises three generous double bedrooms and two bathrooms (one en-suite), well suited to both families and professionals. High ceilings enhance the volume of the accommodation, while to the rear, a large private terrace provides an ideal space for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply unwinding away from the bustle of central London.

Offered unfurnished, the apartment allows an incoming tenant to create a home tailored to their own taste. Cadogan Place is perfectly positioned just moments from Sloane Square, with the boutiques of Sloane Street, the restaurants and cafés of Knightsbridge and the King's Road all within easy reach. Hyde Park is a short walk away, completing the appeal of this outstanding Belgravia address.
