Located at the end of this cul-de-sac in a popular residential area, within walking distance of local primary and secondary schools, and with access to town bus services, this bungalow would suit families or those looking to downsize to a quiet residential area.

The property is approached via the driveway to a side porch which provides useful storage for coats and shoes, with internal access to the garage and to door to leading to rear of the property. A further door leads to the kitchen, which is need of modernisation. The lounge/diner is located off the kitchen, with windows to the front and the rear providing plenty of light. The internal hallway provides access to the 3 bedrooms, shower room with toilet and separate WC.

Outside, a paved patio seating area to the front of the bungalow enjoys a sunny aspect with surrounding walls and hedging providing privacy. A pedestrian path leads to the side lawned garden with a paved access path to the rear of the property.
