This handsome period town house in the heart of Newquay has recently undergone an extensive refurbishment alongside the construction of the neighbouring Gwel Trebarwith development. The resultant three storey house is extremely spacious with flexible, light and airy accommodation throughout, incorporating some original character features into a modern serviceable well-proportioned home. The ground floor incorporates a bay fronted lounge/bedroom with a further bedroom and ground floor shower room. To the rear is the well sized utility/boot room that leads directly into the rear South facing sun lounge bi-folding doors onto the rear patio and parking. The first floor is largely dominated by the large open bay fronted space for use as a lounge/dining/kitchen with a small sea view front balcony and a South facing rear dining deck off the kitchen area, which is fully fitted and incorporates a central island. A further double rear bay bedroom with an en-suite completes this floor. The entire top floor is set as a master bedroom suite with a large en-suite bathroom and a protruding front dormer window with a glazed cheek having spectacular views over Newquay Bay.

This entire property has been finished for sale and comes complete with a gas certificate, an electrical certificate and floorcoverings throughout.

TENURE

The property is being sold Freehold but also comes with the added benefits of limited use of some of the Gwel Trebarwith development facilities including communal maintained gardens, overflow car parking by arrangement, payable ev charging, bin store and most importantly, access to the beach steps that lead directly to the beach below. The total service charge for estate amenities is currently £731pa.
