OUTSIDE

There is off road parking at the front of the property and a short distance away, there is a car port owned by the property which is suitable for further parking. This area has potential to dismantle the car port as there is a large area behind the car port which could be utilised to create further parking for two/three vehicles, if required.

The property is nestled on the side of May Hill and enjoys charming wrap around gardens with numerous seating areas at different levels from which to enjoy the setting and the views across the valley and the surrounding hills and countryside. A gate gives direct access on to the Wysis Way which leads straight up to May Hill with lovely countryside walks from your doorstep. In addition, there is a path which leads up to two further paddocks. At the end of the top paddock, there is an old stone building with redevelopment potential, subject to the necessary planning permissions, to convert into a dwelling or useful building.
