Cinderford is a town located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire. It lies in the eastern part of the Forest of Dean, approximately 10 miles (16 kilometres) east of the city of Gloucester.

Historically, Cinderford was a prominent mining and industrial town, with coal mining being a significant part of its heritage. The town played a vital role in the production and transportation of coal during the height of the mining industry in the area.

Today, Cinderford has transformed into a vibrant town with a diverse range of amenities and attractions. The town centre offers a variety of shops, supermarkets, cafes, and restaurants, providing residents with convenient access to everyday necessities and leisure activities. The town also has community facilities and services, including schools, a library, a leisure centre, and a local market.

Cinderford is surrounded by beautiful woodland areas, making it an excellent base for outdoor enthusiasts. The nearby Forest of Dean offers numerous trails and recreational opportunities, such as walking, cycling, and wildlife spotting. Popular attractions in the area include the Sculpture Trail, Puzzlewood, and the Dean Heritage Centre.

The property is accessed via a small porch of dwarf wall construction, upvc double glazed door to side and front & side aspect double glazed windows. An obscure glazed panel door leads into the:
